

Association for Emerging Professionals Mentor Application

The AEP helps young people achieve excellence and success by becoming active in AEP chapters, the workplace, and the community. The AEP motto is "To learn, work, serve, impact, innovate, and celebrate." As an AEP Mentor, you will work with youth and young adult members to empower them to impact their world today. AEP Mentors are required to: be at least age 26; be working or retired professionals (private industry, public agency, or self-employed); have a high school diploma or GED; have no criminal record; have an ability to relate positively with youth; maintain high moral character (including living a drug-free and crime-free lifestyle); participate in mentor training; and participate in the activities of a local AEP chapter.
